What do Export Controls usually cover?

Tell Me

When export controls apply, they are frequently, but not exclusively, associated with items, information, and software code within the following general areas:

1. Chemical, Biotechnology, and Biomedical Engineering
2. Materials Technology
3. Remote Sensing, Imaging, and Reconnaissance
5. Robotics
6. Propulsion System and Unmanned Air Vehicle Subsystems
7. Telecommunications/Networking
8. Nuclear Technology
9. Sensors and Sensor Technology
10. Advanced Computer/Microelectronic Technology
11. Information Security/Encryption
12. Laser and Directed Energy Systems
13. Rocket Systems
14. Marine Technology

---

Info

To learn more, please visit UNC Charlotte's Export Control website.

If you have any questions, please contact John Jacobs, Export Control Officer, Office of Research Compliance, at 704-687-1877 or via e-mail at jjacob2@uncc.edu.

---

Related Articles

- What do Export Controls regulate?
- How do I know whether my research is fundamental?
- What do Export Controls have to do with me?
- What do Export Controls usually cover?