How do I know the location of a meeting in Google Calendar?

Tell Me

1. To see the location of a meeting using a web browser on a desktop, single click on the meeting to see the summary of details. For meetings longer than 30min, the location will be shown on your calendar below the event title.

2. Mobile devices will show the location in the app.

Related FAQs

- What are nudges in Gmail and how do I turn them on/off?
- How do I make sure invitations emailed to me show on my Google calendar?
- How do I view multiple Google Calendar accounts?
- How do I share my Google Calendar to grant an individual access?
- How do I schedule events on my manager's Google Calendar?