Where can I find expense account code information?

Tell Me

1. Account code resources can be found on the Reporting & Fixed Asset website including the Expense Account Code List and the Expense Account Code Descriptions, which provides examples of when to use specific accounts.

Related FAQs

- What account should I use for employee training expenses?
- Should I record an offset to an expense account when I receive money back?
- How do I determine which “other” or “miscellaneous” account code to use?
- How do account codes impact the University's financial statements?
- Which account code should I use to record a fixed asset when I create a new requisition?