Can I recall a book that’s checked out to someone else?

Tell Me
Yes, recalls may be placed on any regular circulating item that is currently checked out to another user.

1. When a recall is placed a notice is sent to the patron who has the item.
2. The patron with the item will receive a new due date.
3. All patrons are guaranteed 21 days to use the item regardless of original due date. If the recall is placed after 21 days of checkout the patron will be asked to return the item within 5 days. If the recall is placed during the 21 day checkout period the patron with the item will be asked to return the item at the end of the 21 days.
4. Alternately, you may request a checked-out item through Interlibrary Loan.

Related Articles
- Where do I pay for my fines?
- What should I do if I lose a book I have checked out?
- What should I do if I cannot locate an available item on the shelf?
- What is the difference between a hold and a recall?
- What are the fees for items returned late?