What is Single Sign On (SSO) at UNC Charlotte?

Tell Me

1. UNC Charlotte has adopted a tool, Shibboleth, to facilitate the ability for employees and students to log into multiple online systems without repeating the login process.
2. When you log into a service using SSO, you will see a page requesting web authentication in order to establish a shared session.

Related FAQs

- How can I tell what systems use Single Sign On (SSO)?
- What is Single Sign On (SSO) at UNC Charlotte?
- How do I log into a Single Sign On (SSO) service?
- When I log out of a Single Sign On (SSO) service, will I be logged out of all the services?
- What happens if a Single Sign On (SSO) session time out is different from the application time out?