Quick Intro to CIS GAANN

What is GAANN fellowship?
- It stands for Graduate Assistance in Areas of National Need
- Fellowship funded by Department of Education
- To build up new professors and researchers in the area of national need
  - For CIS (Computing and Information Systems) PhD, the areas are AI, Cybersecurity and Secure programming

Who is CIS PhD GAANN Fellowship for?
- Students pursuing PhD in CIS PhD program
- Research topic in AI, Cybersecurity and Security programming
- With a plan for career in teaching or research
- A national of the USA, permanent resident, or from one of the Freely Associated States