How do I sign up for my University Adobe Creative Cloud account?

Tell Me

Note

All faculty and staff are able to sign up for their Adobe (enterprise) account using their username@uncc.edu email address. Adobe Creative Cloud is not available to students but the software is installed in the Library and in many labs.

You only need to sign up for the first time you access Adobe Creative Cloud; any future login can follow these steps for personal or University computers.

1. Go to adobe.uncc.edu and click Sign Up.

2. Enter your NinerNET credentials and click Log In.

3. A confirmation page will display with a link to adobe.com. You should also receive an email notification to your University email account confirming that you have access to the Adobe Creative Cloud for enterprise apps; no need to follow the "install an app yourself" link in the email. View this FAQ for installation instructions.
