What's the difference between a Discussion post and an Announcement post in a Google Group?

Tell Me

1. Discussion: Discussion posts are intended to be a conversation where Group members can read and respond.
2. Announcement: Announcement posts are intended to be a one-way communication of important information.
   a. Announcement posts will include a megaphone icon and members can’t respond.

Info

Emails generated from posts will be the same format when either sent as a Discussion or an Announcement. The difference in type is meaningful when group members are using the Google Group interface as a way of seeing content.

Related FAQs

- How do I change the permissions in my Google Group to allow me to direct add members?
- What settings should I review first when I get a new UNC Charlotte Google Group?
- What are the default settings for a UNC Charlotte Google Group?
- How do I request a Google Group?
- What is the difference between a contact group, a Google Group, and a list-serve?