What is Tetra antivirus and who should I contact for help?

Tell Me

Tetra is required software for university computers. See the Guideline for the Security of Endpoints for more details.

1. Tetra is the antivirus software used on University Macs and Windows.
2. Tetra helps protect against malware and viruses without adversely affecting the performance of your computer.
3. If you have any questions or need support, contact the IT Service Desk.

Related FAQs

- What vulnerability management tools are used at UNC Charlotte?
- What operating systems are supported on university servers?
- What is Splunk and what is it used for?
- How do I request an exception from University IT Guidelines for Endpoints, Systems and Applications?
- How do I install and configure University supported OSSEC agents for host intrusion and protection?