What is the difference between a hold and a recall?

Tell Me

1. The library uses holds as a way of allowing patrons to request items currently available. The item will be retrieved by library staff and made available to the requesting patron.
2. A recall is used if an item is currently checked out to another patron.

Related Articles

- Where do I pay for my fines?
- What should I do if I lose a book I have checked out?
- What should I do if I cannot locate an available item on the shelf?
- What is the difference between a hold and a recall?
- What are the fees for items returned late?