Tell Me

1. A recharge activity is an activity that provides goods and services primarily to University departments at annually approved rates on a regular and continuing basis.
2. A recharge unit is any University group providing these specialized services and/or products which generates annual revenues of $25,000 or more.
3. Goods and services may also be provided only an incidental basis to external users such as private companies, hospitals, and non-profit organizations.
4. To learn more about setting up a Recharge Unit, click here.

Related FAQs

- Where can I find information on setting up a Recharge Unit for grants and contracts?
- Where can I find information on Effort Reporting for grants and contracts?
- Where can I get training/certification on Effort Reporting for grants and contracts?
- Grants & Contracts Administration