Will the Identity Finder scan affect my computer's performance?

Tell Me

1. Identity Finder should not affect normal day-to-day activities (it runs silently in the background) but you may notice a slight delay in responsiveness when working between applications.
2. Click here for the scan schedule.

Note

Information Security can’t see the information, the system only detects data that seems to meet social security and credit card number criteria.

Related FAQs

- What is Identity Finder and what does it do?
- What happens if Identity Finder finds SSNs or credit card numbers on a computer?
- Does Identity Finder scan University computers when they are off campus?
- Will the Identity Finder scan affect my computer’s performance?
- What types of data, or information, does Identity Finder look for?