Am I required to own a computer, as a student?

Tell Me

1. Students in the College of Arts and Architecture and the College of Engineering are required to own a computer. However, most colleges at UNC Charlotte do not require computer ownership.
2. Find out more about buying a computer and suggested software.

Related FAQs

- Do employees get a discount on personal computer purchases?
- Is there any suggested software for students?
- How do I purchase a new University-owned computer?
- How do I create an Apple account to purchase a new University computer?
- Am I required to own a computer, as a student?