How do I explore the research capabilities of UNC Charlotte and possible research partnerships between my business and the University?

Tell Me

1. The Charlotte Research Institute (CRI) is the gateway through which industry-government-university partnerships are facilitated and supported. All prospective industry and government partners are encouraged to visit campus and tour our facilities with a CRI representative. CRI representatives can arrange tours of specific research centers and meetings with associated research faculty.
2. Visit the Research and Economic Development website at http://research.uncc.edu/ for an overview of the significant research capabilities at UNC Charlotte.

For more information about research partnerships at UNC Charlotte and the Charlotte Research Institute, visit the website or contact the CRI administrative offices at 704.687.5690.

Related Articles

- What type of business and research office/laboratory lease space is available at UNC Charlotte?
- What is Ventureprise, Inc. and the University’s business incubator and accelerator?
- What is the PORTAL Industry-University Partnership building and how do I learn more about the programs and space licensing options within that facility?
- What is the North Carolina Research Campus and what is the relationship between that research facility and UNC Charlotte?
- What is the Charlotte Research Institute (CRI) and where is it located?