What is the Institutional Biosafety Committee (IBC)?

Tell Me

1. The Institutional Biosafety Committee (IBC) is responsible for oversight of all research and teaching activities involved with potentially hazardous biological materials and recombinant or synthetic DNA. The IBC makes recommendations to minimize or eliminate risks associated with proposed research or teaching activities involving the use of biological hazards at, or sponsored by, the University.

Related Articles

- Who can I contact for more information about working with potentially hazardous biological materials?
- Where can I find more information about working with potentially hazardous biological materials?
- What is the Institutional Biosafety Committee (IBC)?
- What is a biological hazard?
- What do I need to do if my project/research involves the use of potentially hazardous biological materials?

Info
Contact the Biosafety Compliance Manager at 704-687-1872 for more information.