How are endowment funds invested?

Tell Me

1. Endowment funds are pooled and invested by managing agents with highly diversified portfolios designed for both current earnings and long-term growth to ensure the continued support of the purpose designated by the donor.
2. The University of North Carolina at Charlotte Investment Fund (UNCCIF) is a separate non-profit corporation organized exclusively to invest endowment funds for the support of the University and its affiliated organizations.

Related FAQs

- Why are three fund numbers used to report an endowment asset?
- What is the difference between University and Foundation Endowments?
- What is a true endowment?
- What is a term endowment?
- What is a quasi-endowment?