How does a student change the settings within Mahara?

Tell Me

1. Log onto Canvas using your NinerNET credentials, select the course within which you would like to access Mahara, and choose Mahara from the menu items on the left.

   Activity Logs
   Piazza
   Mahara
   Library Resources
   Canvas to Banner
   Grade Submission

2. Select the down arrow beside the profile photo icon
   a. Your photo will appear if you have elected to add a profile picture.

3. Select Settings from the drop down menu.

4. You will be able to change various settings within Mahara from this page.

   General account options
   - friends control
     - Nobody may add me as a friend
     - New friends require my authorization
     - New friends are automatically authorised
   - HTML editor
     - Yes
   - Disable email
     - No
   - Messages from other users
     - Do not allow anyone to send me messages
     - Allow people on my friends list to send me messages
     - Allow anyone to send me messages
   - Show controls to add and remove columns when editing a page
     - Yes
   - Show the options for Multiple Journals
     - Yes

Password Change

Do not attempt to change your password within Mahara. Your Mahara e-portfolio and your NinerNET credentials are linked. If you need to change your NinerNET password for any reason, you can do so via the Forgot your password link when entering your NinerNET ID.
Related FAQs

- How does a student log into Mahara (after completing the first log in)?
- How does a student edit their Mahara e-portfolio?
- How does a student change the settings within Mahara?
- How does a student change the layout on their Mahara e-portfolio?
- How does a student create and add documents to folders within Mahara?