What is third-party patching and what applications get patched?

Tell Me

1. Like operating systems, applications need to be updated on a regular basis in order to reduce security vulnerabilities. This process is called third-party patching.
2. For a complete list of third-party applications patched by ITS, please visit our partner site at https://patchmypc.net/supported-products-scup-catalog.

Related FAQs

- How do I install SPSS on a university owned computer?
- Why is recorded/inserted audio not available in my PowerPoint presentation?
- How do I request Jabber?
- How do I install SPSS on a personally owned computer?
- What software is available to UNC Charlotte students?