What is an Academic Petition?

Tell Me

1. An academic petition is a request for exception to academic policy or to notify the Graduate School of academic changes such as concentration changes and catalog changes
2. Academic petitions require action from the student's Advisor or Graduate Program Director
3. In some cases approval is required by the Department Chair and Associate Dean of the College
4. If the petition is regarding a particular course, the Instructor may also be required to review the petition

Related FAQs

- What is an Academic Petition?
- What is the Graduate Academic Petition system?
- Do I need to be an active student to submit a petition?
- Can my petition be denied? If so, why and what is the criteria?
- How long is the Academic Petition process?